

Forensic VSA

Truth - or - Deception ?

Discovery Channel Series "Killing Fields" revisits a Louisiana murder to find the TRUTH in the MURDER of Curtis "Cochise" Smith in 1991. The investigation takes several turns after being reopened.

Brad Schlerf, a retired Kansas police detective joins the team to shed new light on the interviews conducted over the past 20 years.

Utilizing Forensic Voice Stress Analysis to identify TRUTH & DECEPTION in the recorded interviews Detective Schlerf verifies the confession of Tommy Francise as TRUTHFUL. Except (1) key portion.
